Follow the Quilt Trail!™

Northeast Tennessee's rich History and Heritage fits together like the pieces of a quilt and is brought to life as you follow the Quilt Trail.

Departure point will depend on which section of the Quilt Trail you wish to explore. Or come and spend a few days leisurely exploring the entire Quilt Trail. Take time to savor the beauty and heritage of Tennessee's First Frontier.

Sit back and enjoy the scenery as your tour guide shares the history and stories of our beautiful region.

- ◆ Meet the barn owners and listen to unique stories about their family's heritage.

- ◆ We offer a variety of restaurants throughout our six Northeastern counties to give you a flavor of our region.
- ◆ Shop for local items such as honey, jams and hand made quilts at St. John's Mill, site of the Little Dutch Boy and Girl.
- ◆ Visit the Knob Creek Historic Museum and enjoy an extensive collection of historic memorabilia on loan from families all over Washington County.
- ◆ Discount Coupons from Jonesborough Merchants, including: Tennessee Quilts.
- ◆ A portion of the proceeds will benefit the Quilt Trail and Farmland Protection in Northeast Tennessee!
