T.J., Travel America, Milwaukee, Wisconsin

“What a hoot! I wasn’t sure what a multigenerational tour was. The blending of music, stories and activities was perfect.”

S. Campbell, Tampa, Florida

Music: The language of all ages.

Let’s “Walk the Line” © at the Carter Family Fold. Every Saturday night the Fold comes alive with music. People come from all over the world so you never know who might jump up and start dancing. Dancers from two to ninety-two have fun with the toe tappin’ music.

“Fools & Farmhouses” © Is there such a thing as too much foolishness? Find out with a few days of frivolity, food and fun. A Fools hijacking and a one of a kind “Fools Inside Out” dinner is just the beginning of the adventure.

“We laughed more in four days than we have in four years. We’ll be back for more of your zany fun.”

J. Bell, Columbus, Ohio

I have traveled the world and your guides are the best! Their knowledge of the area was unmatched.

B. Callis, Nashville, Tennessee

“Elegant Shivers” © Those who love a bit of mystery should take this multiple-night tour. An evening “legends” walk, an interactive murder mystery and a late afternoon barge ride on a mountaintop lake with wolves howling in the distance are guaranteed to send shivers up your spine.

Get wrapped up in a murder mystery.

You never know who you’ll meet along the Great Stage Road.

“Storytelling Sampler” © Follow in the footsteps of pioneers and presidents along the “Great Stage Road.” Travel the back roads and enjoy great food, music and, of course, more stories on this three-day tour.

The Overmountain Men mustered often at Sycamore Shoals during the American Revolution.

Experience life in the eighteenth century through living history at Rocky Mount Museum.
